CROWN RELOCATIONS LAUNCHES A GIFT BOX PROGRAM IN PARTNERSHIP WITH THE SALVATION ARMY

Hong Kong, August 20, 2014 – Crown Relocations is delighted to announce a Gift Box donation program in conjunction with its long-term charity partner, The Salvation Army Hong Kong.

Crown Chairman Jim Thompson's long-term support of charitable activities, together with Crown Relocations' extensive global experience of relocating customers and moving their belongings, is the inspiration behind the campaign. Not only will it enable Crown customers to donate goods that they don't need anymore, disposing of them in a straightforward manner, it will also directly benefit the local community. This campaign is both a practical demonstration of Crown's environmental policy and a way of supporting low-income families and individuals in need.

The program works in such a way that every Crown customer who is leaving Hong Kong or relocating domestically will receive a special "GIFT" sticker. They can then place this sticker on the top of a Crown moving box that they have filled with items to be donated. Crown will deliver the "GIFT" boxes to The Salvation Army, who will sort the goods and transfer them to stores in Hong Kong and Macau. Here, the donated goods will be distributed to people in need, including the home-alone elderly, street sleepers, ex-prisoners and social security assistance recipients.

Marta Drzewakowska, Marketing and Customer Relations Manager, Crown Relocations Hong Kong commented, "We would like to contribute to the improvement of the living standards of people in need, but so often we do not know how to start, to whom to turn. That's where Crown can help. Among our belongings there may be items that we haven't used for years, for example, toys or books that have been stored away and forgotten, but which could be a great source of education and joy to children whose families are less fortunate."
